

Travel and Transportation Expense Reimbursement Policy

Doc No.: BWI-FIN-POL-003 | Version: V2.1 | Effective Date: January 15, 2024 | Prepared by: Finance Department

Chapter I General Provisions

Article 1

These Regulations are formulated in accordance with the company's financial management system and relevant laws and regulations to standardize the reimbursement management of travel and transportation expenses incurred by employees of Boyuan Technology Research (India) Pvt. Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") during business trips and customer reception, ensuring that expenses are reasonable, compliant, and transparent.

Article 2

These Regulations apply to all employees of the Company for reimbursement applications, review, and payment of travel expenses and transportation expenses incurred due to business activities.

Article 3

Reimbursement of travel and transportation expenses shall follow the basic principles of "pre-approval, reimbursement based on actual expenses, complete documentation, and 逐级审核" (hierarchical review).

Chapter II Definition of Reimbursable Expenses

Article 4

The term "travel expenses" as used in these Regulations refers to reasonable expenses incurred by employees who need to leave their usual place of work (Faridabad) to travel to other cities or regions for business purposes, specifically including:

(1) Transportation expenses: Including but not limited to expenses incurred by business travel using chartered vehicle services, taxis, public transportation, and other means of transport. Transportation expenses shall be guided by the principle of the most economical and reasonable mode of travel; special circumstances require explanation in the reimbursement application;

(2) Accommodation expenses: Hotel accommodation expenses incurred due to overnight stays required by business trips. Accommodation expenses include room charges and may also include reasonable ancillary expenses such as in-hotel dining and parking. The above expenses shall be calculated in aggregate and submitted together at the time of reimbursement;

(3) Meal allowance: Reasonable meal expenses during business trips, executed in accordance with relevant company standards;

(4) Other reasonable business expenses: Such as communication fees, luggage storage fees, and other expenditures directly related to business activities.

Article 5

The term "customer reception transportation expenses" as used in these Regulations refers to transportation expenses incurred by Company employees for picking up and dropping off visiting clients for business purposes, including but not limited to:

(1) Transportation expenses incurred by employees traveling to the client's location to meet and receive clients;

(2) Transportation expenses incurred by employees accompanying clients from the client's location back to the Company or to other business destinations;

(3) Transportation expenses incurred by clients returning to their place of origin on their own (also reimbursable even without Company employee accompaniment).

Article 6

Transportation expenses incurred jointly by multiple persons (e.g., chartered vehicle services carrying multiple persons) shall be reimbursed based on the total actual cost per trip, without the need for per-capita allocation. Specifically, judgment shall be made based on actual circumstances. If the expenses were indeed incurred for business reception of multiple persons, the full amount shall be included in the reimbursement scope.

Chapter III Reimbursement Procedures

Article 7

Reimbursement of travel and transportation expenses shall follow the standard procedures below:

Step 1: Submit Reimbursement Materials — The reimbursement applicant shall fill out the "Expense Reimbursement Application Form", together with original valid invoices, approved reception plan or business trip approval form, and other supporting documents, and submit them to the department head.

Step 2: Department Head Review — The department head shall review the authenticity, reasonableness, and compliance of the reimbursement application. After confirming that the expenses are directly related to business activities, the department head shall sign the review opinion and transfer the materials to the Finance Department.

Step 3: Finance Department Review — The Finance Department shall review the completeness of the reimbursement materials, the validity of the invoices, and the accuracy of the amounts. If the materials are found to be incomplete or the invoices do not meet the requirements, the Finance Department shall promptly notify the reimbursement applicant to supplement or correct them.

Step 4: Reimbursement Payment — After the Finance Department review is passed, the reimbursement amount shall be paid to the designated account of the reimbursement applicant according to the company's payment procedures. Under normal circumstances, the reimbursement amount shall be credited within ten working days after the review is passed.

Article 8

If the reimbursement amount exceeds the department head's approval authority, it shall be reported to the General Manager for approval level by level.

Article 9

Reimbursement applications shall be submitted within thirty working days after the expense occurs. Overdue submissions shall be accompanied by a written explanation and confirmed by both the department head and the Finance Department before they can be accepted.

Chapter IV Invoice Information Requirements

Article 10

Invoices submitted for reimbursement shall contain the following basic information:

- (1) Expense occurrence time: precise to date and specific time;
- (2) Expense occurrence location: at least precise to city level;
- (3) Expense amount: clearly marked actual payment amount;
- (4) Service provider information: including service provider name, vehicle information, etc. (based on the content stated on the original invoice).

Article 11

Specific detail information on the invoice (such as specific address, service provider contact information, etc.) shall be based on the content stated on the original invoice. The reimbursement application form only needs to include city-level location and date/time information; remaining details shall be supported by the original invoice.

Article 12

The reimbursement applicant shall ensure the authenticity, completeness, and legibility of the original invoices. If the original invoice is lost, a written explanation must be provided and confirmed by both the department head and the Finance Department before alternative vouchers can be used.

Chapter V Authenticity Supporting Documents

Article 13

To ensure the authenticity of reimbursement matters, the reimbursement applicant shall provide the following supporting documents when submitting the reimbursement application:

- (1) Approved project background materials, such as work plans, reception plans, business trip approval forms, etc.;
- (2) Work records related to the reimbursement matter, such as meeting notices, meeting minutes, work logs, etc.;
- (3) For customer reception matters, materials such as visiting client information, reception personnel list, and activity agenda shall be provided;
- (4) Other materials that can prove the direct relevance of the expense to business activities.

Article 14

The above supporting documents shall be consistent with the time, location, personnel, and other information in the reimbursement application. The Finance Department has the right to request explanations from the reimbursement applicant for any inconsistencies.

Chapter VI Acceptable Invoice Types

Article 15

The Company recognizes the following types of invoices for reimbursement:

- (1) Official machine-printed invoices: Machine-printed invoices supervised by tax authorities and issued through the tax control system;
- (2) Electronic invoices: Electronic invoices issued through the official electronic invoice platform, with complete electronic invoice information to be provided;

(3) System-generated trip sheets or receipts: Trip sheets or electronic receipts automatically generated by formal service platforms (such as ride-hailing platforms, online travel agencies, etc.), which must contain complete trip information and expense details;

(4) Other formal invoices recognized by the Finance Department.

Article 16

The following invoice types are NOT recognized:

(1) Handwritten invoices;

(2) Incomplete or illegible invoices;

(3) Obviously altered or forged invoices;

(4) Invoices obtained through informal channels.

Chapter VII Supplementary Provisions

Article 17

These Regulations shall be interpreted and revised by the Finance Department.

Article 18

These Regulations shall take effect from the date of issuance, and existing relevant regulations shall be simultaneously abolished.

Article 19

If any provision of these Regulations conflicts with local laws and regulations, local laws and regulations shall prevail.

Prepared by: Finance Department

Approved by: Dr. Suresh Kumar, General Manager

Effective Date: January 15, 2024