

INTERNAL POLICY

Travel and Activity Expense Reimbursement Management Policy

Comprehensive guidelines for business travel and event expense management

Document No.: FIN-POL-2012-003

Effective Date: January 1, 2013 (Revised)

Scope: All Employees of BrightPath Solutions Inc.

Governing Department: Finance Department

Travel and Activity Expense Reimbursement Management Policy

Document No.: FIN-POL-2012-003 Effective Date: January 1, 2012 Revision Date: January 1, 2013

Scope: All Employees of BrightPath Solutions Inc. Governing Department: Finance Department

Chapter I General Provisions

Article 1 This Policy is formulated to standardize the reimbursement management of travel and activity expenses, strengthen internal financial controls, and ensure that all expense expenditures are authentic, reasonable, and compliant, in accordance with the company's financial management system and relevant regulations.

Article 2 This Policy applies to all employees of the company for expense reimbursement arising from business travel, client entertainment, marketing activities, meetings, and exchanges.

Article 3 All expense reimbursement shall follow the principles of "authenticity, reasonableness, and timeliness." The reimbursement applicant bears direct responsibility for the authenticity of submitted reimbursement materials.

Chapter II Reimbursable Expense Definitions

Article 4 Travel expenses include the following categories:

1. Transportation Expenses: Airfare, train tickets, taxi fares, car rental fees, and parking fees incurred due to business travel. Formal transportation documentation must be provided.
2. Accommodation Expenses: Hotel accommodation expenses incurred due to overnight business travel. Accommodation expenses include not only the room charge but also reasonable incidental expenses incurred within the hotel, such as hotel restaurant dining fees, hotel parking fees, and hotel business center usage fees. These incidental expenses shall be combined with the accommodation expenses and submitted uniformly for reimbursement. Formal invoices or receipts issued by the hotel must be provided.
3. Dining Expenses: Dining expenses incurred due to business activities (including client entertainment). Expenses for group dining may be reimbursed collectively; when submitting for reimbursement, dining participants and the purpose must be noted.

Article 5 Activity expenses include the following categories:

1. Venue Expenses: Event venue rental, setup, and other related fees.
2. Materials Procurement Expenses: Expenses for procurement of various materials required for activities, including but not limited to flower decorations, table ornaments, atmosphere setup items, promotional materials, gifts, etc. Formal commercial invoices must be provided for materials procurement.
3. Dining and Entertainment Expenses: Dining and entertainment expenses during the activity, including beverages, refreshments, etc.
4. Technical Service Expenses: Expenses for technical services required for the activity, such as audio, lighting, photography, and videography services.

Article 6 Expenses incurred collectively by multiple persons (such as team dining, shared accommodation, joint procurement, etc.) may generally be reimbursed collectively. For collective reimbursement, the primary coordinator shall submit the reimbursement application uniformly, noting the list of participants and expense allocation explanation in the reimbursement form. Whether to reimburse collectively shall be determined based on actual circumstances; the Finance Department has the authority to review based on expense nature and amount reasonableness.

Chapter III Reimbursable Documentation Requirements

Article 7 The company accepts the following types of formal documentation as reimbursement evidence:

1. VAT Invoice
2. Commercial Retail Invoice / Sales Invoice
3. Electronic Invoice (must contain complete transaction information)
4. Credit Card/Bank Card transaction slip (must be submitted together with the corresponding invoice)
5. Official Receipt (must include merchant name, date, amount, and transaction details)

Article 8 All reimbursement documentation must meet the following basic requirements:

1. Documentation contents must be clear and legible, with no alterations or obstructions;
2. Documentation payee must be the company's full name or standard abbreviation;
3. Documentation date must fall within a reasonable time range of when the expense was incurred;
4. Documentation amount must match the reimbursement amount;
5. Handwritten receipts, informal notes, personal self-made vouchers, etc. are not accepted as reimbursement evidence.

Article 9 For foreign currency documentation reimbursement, the reimbursement applicant must note the applicable exchange rate on the date the expense was incurred; the Finance Department will calculate according to the company's stipulated exchange rate conversion standards.

Chapter IV Reimbursement Process

Article 10 Expense reimbursement shall follow the standard procedure below:

- 1. Reimbursement applicant organizes reimbursement materials: After expenses are incurred, the applicant shall promptly organize all documentation and relevant supporting materials and complete the Expense Reimbursement Application Form. Reimbursement materials shall include but not be limited to: Expense Reimbursement Application Form, original invoices/documentation, expense detail list, and relevant approval documents (such as Procurement Approval Form, Travel Approval Form, activity approval documents, etc.).
- 2. Department Head review: The applicant submits the organized reimbursement materials to the Department Head, who reviews the authenticity, reasonableness, and relevance to business activities of the expenses, and signs to confirm upon approval.
- 3. Finance Department re-verification: Reimbursement materials approved by the Department Head are submitted to the Finance Department, which re-verifies the compliance of documentation, accuracy of amounts, and completeness of the approval process. If questions arise, the Finance Department has the authority to request supplementary explanation or additional materials from the applicant.
- 4. Reimbursement payment: After approval by the Finance Department, reimbursement payment will be made within ten working days via bank transfer to the applicant's designated account.

Article 11 The applicant shall submit the reimbursement application within thirty days after the expense is incurred. For overdue submissions, a written explanation of reasons must be provided and confirmed by both the Department Head and the Finance Department before the application can be accepted.

Chapter V Authenticity Supporting Materials

Article 12 To demonstrate the authenticity and business relevance of reimbursed expenses, the applicant must provide the following supplementary materials based on expense type:

- 1. Travel Expenses: Travel approval form, travel itinerary, meeting invitation letter, etc.

2. Activity Expenses: Activity approval documents, activity proposal/plan, procurement approval form, supplier quotation, on-site activity photos, etc.
3. Client Entertainment Expenses: Client entertainment approval form, entertainment purpose statement, list of participants, etc.

Article 13 The above supporting materials must be consistent with key information such as time and location in the reimbursement documentation. The Finance Department will conduct cross-verification of relevant information during the review process.

Chapter VI Supplementary Provisions

Article 14 This Policy shall be interpreted and revised by the Finance Department.

Article 15 This Policy shall take effect on January 1, 2013, and the version issued on January 1, 2012 is simultaneously abolished.