Procurement Item	On-site Flowers and Decorations Procurement for 2013 Spring Client Reception
Related Event	2013 Spring Client Reception
Event Date	Early May 2013
Event Location	Sherrybury
Procurement Executor	Marketing Department, Event Preparation Team
Planned Procurement Date	Late April to early May 2013

II. Procurement Necessity Statement

The 2013 Spring Client Reception is a key annual marketing event for the company, aimed at demonstrating the company's image and deepening cooperative relationships with core clients. The on-site floral decoration and atmosphere setup is an important element in enhancing the event quality and reflecting the company's brand positioning.

Referencing the execution experience from similar events in 2012, the carefully planned flower and decoration arrangements received widespread praise from attending guests and played a positive role in shaping the company's brand image. This year's event will build upon last year's foundation with optimized adjustments, differentiated design based on venue conditions and event theme, striving to achieve better visual effects while controlling overall expenses.

III. Procurement Plan Summary

According to the event planning proposal, this procurement mainly covers the following:

- 1. Fresh Flowers: Including premium rose bouquets, sunflower and lavender bouquets, large orchid potted plants, seasonal wildflower bouquets, etc., for floral decoration in the main stage, registration area, guest dining tables, rest area, and corridors.

2. Decorative Vessels: Including handcrafted ceramic vases, gilded glass candle holder sets, etc., to complement floral displays and create dining table atmosphere.
3. Wall Decorations: Including framed botanical theme prints, for wall decoration in guest corridors and rest areas.

For specific procurement quantities and detailed plans, please refer to the "2013 Spring Client Reception - Flowers and Decorations Procurement Plan."

IV. Budget Statement

This procurement budget is reasonably adjusted based on the actual expenditure level of similar events in 2012, combined with this year's event scale and venue conditions. The procurement executor will strictly control procurement costs and prioritize the most cost-effective options while ensuring quality. All procurement will retain complete invoices and transaction records, with unified reimbursement processing after the event concludes.

V. Approval Comments

Approval Stage	Approver	Position	Approval Comment	Signature Date
Department Head Review	Liu Ting	Marketing Director	Approved. This procurement addresses the core requirements for the reception venue setup. The procurement plan is reasonable and quantities are appropriate. Please ensure procurement invoices are complete and properly filed. It is recommended to give priority to previously contracted quality suppliers when selecting suppliers to ensure flower quality and delivery timeliness.	April 5, 2013
Vice President Approval	Michael Chen	Vice President, Marketing & Business Development	Approved. This procurement is essential for maintaining the high standard of our annual Spring Client Reception. The plan is well-structured and aligned with our brand positioning. Please proceed with the procurement and ensure all documentation is properly maintained for reimbursement purposes.	April 10, 2013
